Country’s lone Maritime University held 9th Meeting of Syndicate

The first ever maritime university of the country “Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman Maritime University, Bangladesh” started its journey as the sole institution for maritime higher education. The 9th Meeting of its Syndicate was organized at the university’s temporary campus at Pallabi in the capital. The Vice-Chancellor of the university Rear Admiral A S M Abdul Baten chaired the meeting which was attended by other members of the syndicate. The budget of the fiscal year 2016-2017 and the 2nd annual report of the university were approved by the syndicate. Recently the admission test was held of the 2nd batch of ‘LLM Maritime Law’ and ‘Master in Port & Shipping Management’ programs. The university has launched two Certificate Courses on “Dangerous Goods Handling and Transportation” and “Marine Insurance and Claim”. Besides, the university is going to launch two honours programs on ‘Oceanography’ and ‘Naval Architecture and Ocean Engineering’ in the session 2016-2017. After completing courses the students will be able to build their career as skilled maritime professionals at home and abroad. The university is determined to contribute to the development of maritime human resource of the nation and uplift the nation’s economy to ‘Blue Economy’, added the Vice-Chancellor. The syndicate members also expressed their satisfaction by the recent initiatives taken by the university in enhancing maritime education.
